

OPEN ACCESS WEEK

Open Access is a movement towards free, open, and accessible research results, processes and educational resources. ECU's libraries are sponsoring the following events in support of Open Access Week:

Open Access to Electronic Theses and Dissertations: What's Right for Me

Monday, October 19th, noon-1 pm, Brody Blue Auditorium

Monday, October 19th, 4-5 pm, Mendenhall 221

Presentation by Jan Lewis, Associate Director, Academic Library Services and Belinda Patterson, Assistant Dean, Graduate School

Author's Rights and Scholarly Communications Issues

Tuesday, October 20th, noon-1 pm, Brody Blue Auditorium

Tuesday, October 20th, 3-4 pm, Mendenhall 221

Presentation by Kevin Smith, J.D., Scholarly Communications Officer, Duke University

Open Access Journals: The Nuts and Bolts Experience of ECU Faculty

Wednesday, October 21st, 4-5 pm, Flanagan 265

Panel discussion with Diane Kester, PhD, Executive Editor, and Sue Steinweg, Editor, of the ECU College of Education's Journal of Curriculum and Instruction, and Biwu Yang, Coordinator of Platform Research and Development, Academic Outreach

An RSVP is recommended, and can be sent HERE.

For More Information:

Joyner Library: Joseph Thomas thomasw@ecu.edu

Laupus Library: Beth Ketterman kettermane@ecu.edu

www.openaccessweek.org